

Precision CW Fistcheck Short Cut Keys

Key(s)	Action
F1	opens your default browser program and displays Help information
F2	opens the Set Parameters window, and closes it again, when opened
F3	opens the Show Timing Values window, and closes it again
F5	resets all values in the Show Timing Values window
F7	momentarily pauses and resumes the signal processing when the Sound Input mode is used
F8	hides and unhides the lower panel where those characters are shown that you have typed on the keyboard
F9	plays the red highlighted characters on the middle panel with your timing
F9 + SHIFT	plays only the first red highlighted character on the middle panel with your timing
F9 + CTRL	plays the green highlighted characters on the lower panel with target speed
F9 + CTRL + SHIFT	plays only the first green highlighted character on the lower panel with target speed
F10	lets you access the menu bar (this is a standard Windows command)
PgUp and PgDn	moves the start of the red highlighted zone
PgUp + CTRL and PgDn + CTRL	moves the start of the green highlighted zone
Home and End	moves the red highlighted zone to first and last character
Home + CTRL and End + CTRL	moves the green highlighted zone to first and last character
DEL	clears text and pattern displays for Morse input ( red )
DEL + CTRL	clears text and pattern displays for typed Morse characters ( green )
CTRL + L	loads text from a file to the lower panel
CTRL + S	saves the decoded text on the middle panel to a file
CTRL + Z	clears all text and pattern displays on all panels
ESC	stops any Morse output it also closes the Set Parameters window, when opened
PAUSE / BREAK	momentarily pauses and resumes the signal processing when the Sound Input mode is used (same as F7)